QUIZZ!!!

- Underemployment and time-related underemployment are the same
- All persons who generally work a few hours are underemployed
- All persons who want to earn more money are in inadequate employment
- Income-related inadequate employment is always higher than time-related underemployment
- National statistics on underemployment are not comparable
- To measure underemployment, a good questionnaire design is very important